

This quite honestly, horrifies me. This article was sent to me to show another viewpoint of "Art" and needless to say this is unspeakable....

In 2007, the 'artist' Guillermo Vargas Habacuc, took a stray dog from the street. He tied him to a rope in an art gallery, starving him to death. For several days, the 'artist' and the visitors of the exhibition have watched emotionless at the shameful 'masterpiece' based on the dog's agony, until the dog eventually died of starvation.

ART? Art my bleeding ass! Does it look like art to you?
But this is not all...

The Prestigious Visual Arts Biennial of Central America decided that the 'installation' was actually art! So Guillermo Vargas Habacuc has been invited to repeat his cruel action for the biennial of 2008.

Let's STOP HIM!!!!!!

Copy and paste this link into your computer web browser <http://www.petitiononline.com/ea6gk/petition.html>

You'll come onto the page where you can click on "sign the petition", On the next page you need to "preview your signature", so click on that, then click "approve signature."

Please do it.

It's free of charge, there is no need to register, and it will only take 1 minute to save the life of an innocent creature. Please also send this e-mail to as many contacts as you can... Let's stop him!!!! If you want to double check all the above information you can Google the name of the 'artist' to see all I have just said corresponds to truth, Thank you